Academic Master's Program Offer

Institution	Faculty/Institute	Department
Abbas LAGHROUR University, Khenchela	Faculty of Letters and Languages	Arabic Language and Literature

Field: Arabic Language and Literature.

Branch: Linguistic Studies.

Specialization: General Linguistics.

- ❖ Institution: ABBES Laghrou University, Khenchela
  - ❖ Title of the Master's Program: General Linguistics
  - ❖ Academic Year: 2016-2017

Framework and Training Objectives:

A. Admission Requirements (Defining the Typical Bachelor's Majors that Allow Admission to the Master's Program in General Linguistics):

The typical Bachelor's degrees that allow admission to the Master's program in General Linguistics include a Bachelor's in General Linguistics.

B. Training Objectives (Competencies Targeted, Knowledge Gained Upon Completion, 20 Lines Maximum):

This project proposes to focus on General Linguistics as the central theme of the program and the selection of topics for the courses, based on the following key justification:

The importance of linguistic studies in general and the necessity to delve deeper into certain issues that were not covered during the Bachelor's degree.

Why General Linguistics?

The primary goal of this project is to train a group of researchers capable of participating in future doctoral competitions in the field of linguistics, in its various branches. Linguistics is tied to both Arab heritage and modern Western linguistic studies.

C. Targeted Qualifications and Skills (Regarding Professional Integration – 20 Lines Maximum):

The program aims to train students who are proficient in language and, on the other hand, possess skills in the field of language teaching.

D. Regional and National Employment Opportunities for University Graduates:

- Educational institutions (primary, intermediate, and secondary schools) that offer positions in teaching.
