

Abbas Lagrou University Khenchela

04-05

04-04-05

Abbes Laghrour University – Khenchela records a total of 1,363 staff members, including academic, administrative, and technical personnel. This figure reflects the university's operational capacity to effectively support both academic and administrative functions within the institution.

03-04-05

Regarding the teaching staff, the university counts a total of 756 faculty members, who contribute to the implementation of undergraduate (Bachelor's), Master's, and Doctoral programs across all faculties and disciplines. This reflects the university's strong commitment to ensuring high academic quality and excellence in teaching and learning.

01-04-05

The number of academic staff in leadership and coordination positions amounts to 176, comprising individuals responsible for curriculum coordination, academic planning, and departmental leadership within the university's organizational structure.

02-04-05

As for female representation in academic leadership positions, the number of female academic leaders has reached 87, marking a significant step toward promoting gender equality in leadership and decision-making roles within Abbas Laghrour University – Khenchela.

Dean

د. بوبكر بن عمران
عميد كلية العلوم الاجتماعية والإنسانية